Brooke McDaniel, MSN, AGNP-C joins Universal Health Corporation's New River Valley office.

Roanoke, VA–January, 2021. Universal Health Corporation (U Health) is pleased to welcome nurse practitioner, Brooke McDaniel to its team. Brooke is an experienced internal medicine nurse practitioner with an in-depth understanding of care for patients with complex medical histories. She specializes in geriatric primary care. McDaniel will be providing treatment and coordinating patient care with the medical director and clinical staff of its New River Valley Center.

“Brooke’s passion for healthcare focused on older adults is one of the reasons that we’re so excited to have her join our team,” said Joseph Park, VP of Marketing and Business Development for U Health. “She has dedicated her career to providing exceptional care for patients with the goal of preventing hospitalizations, increasing quality of life, and supporting aging in place. That fits perfectly with U Health’s patient-centered mission.”

McDaniel comes to U Health with 11 years of experience, including diagnosing and treating patients with acute conditions and managing patients with chronic diseases. In her previous position at Carilion New River Valley Medical Center, McDaniel worked with an interdisciplinary medical team to care for patients in critical care and primary care settings. She also served as a preceptor for new graduate and staff nurses.

McDaniel’s academic training includes a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Radford University and a Master of Science in Nursing from Maryville University. She holds a certification as a licensed nurse practitioner with a specialization in Adult Gerontology Primary Care.

Universal Health Corporation provides onsite, high-quality healthcare professionals to deliver post-acute and long-term care in skilled nursing facilities and nursing homes. If you oversee operational performance and patient outcomes at a skilled nursing center or long-term care facility, U Health wants to partner with you to help achieve your performance goals. Please visit our website at uhcvirginia.com and contact us to learn more about our services.
